Dr. L. Bernard Jakes
Senior Pastor/Teacher

Revised: December 20, 2019
In April 1917, a fervent assembly of African Americans met, and through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, organized a local church where they could worship God and serve the community. Commensurate with many local African American churches throughout the country whose organizers migrated from southern states to northern, eastern, and western states, the organizers honored the church by naming her after the city (West Point, Mississippi) from which a number of the organizers transitioned. As a result, West Point Missionary Baptist Church was born. Afterwards, she called the Rev. R.H. Harmon (pastoral service—1917-1921) of West Point, Mississippi, to be her first pastor. The first of a myriad of responsibilities for Rev. Harmon and the members of West Point Baptist Church was to secure an independent place of worship.

During the late eighteen hundred (1800), Chicago was one of the northern cities where many southerners who made their exodus resettled. In search of better living opportunities, Chicago became The Promised Land to these weary, yet determined travelers. As a result of the large influx of African Americans to Chicago, local city officials designated sections of the city where the new residents could reside. One of these sections was, as it is affectionately known, Bronzeville. African Americans who resettled in Chicago needed places of worship. Historically, many white congregations would not allow African Americans to worship in their churches. However, due to the heightened number of African Americans in the Bronzeville community, white churches began to relocate their congregations in other areas of the city—leaving many worship facilities empty. What the devil meant for evil, God meant for good.

Due to the flight of white churches from the Bronzeville community, in the winter of 1917, Rev. Harmon and the West Point Baptist Church members could purchase the old St. Mark Methodist Episcopal Church—a church completed in 1865, which was used as a chapel in connection with Camp Douglas during the Civil War. The purchase price was $22,000.00. To date, the original purchased building is one hundred forty-two (142) years old and is still owned and operated by West Point Baptist Church.

As lives were continuing to be transformed and Christ exalted, Rev. James H. Brown (pastoral service—1922-1972), who succeeded Rev. Harmon, added to the numerical growth of the church through uncompromising sermonic exaltation and administrative leadership. Toward the latter years of his pastorate, Rev. Brown cast the vision for a new, modern facility. Rev. Brown would see the vision come to pass in 1972; he died shortly thereafter.

After his passing, West Point Missionary Baptist Church called one of her staff ministers, the Rev. Dr. Carroll J. Thompson (pastoral service—1972-1997), to serve as her third pastor. Dr. Thompson was instrumental in burning the mortgage of over $400,000.00 for the new facility in three years and one month.
In addition, Dr. Thompson had a local reputation of being a caring and compassionate pastor—regularly visiting the sick and shut-in of his parish, as well as non-members. He also had a national reputation as a scholar. Dr. Thompson was the first pastor to retire.

After the retirement of Dr. Thompson, West Point Baptist Church called Rev. Corey Brooks (pastoral service—1997-2000), of Indiana, to be her fourth pastor in 80 years. Rev. Brooks introduced a new methodology of worship and witnessing to this local church. The church experienced a substantial numerical growth during his tenure. After three years of service, Rev. Brooks organized a local church in the Chicagoland area.

As West Point Missionary Baptist Church spent one year in search of her next pastor, it culminated into her calling the Rev. Dr. L. Bernard Jakes (pastoral service—2001-present), as her fifth pastor in 84 years. The Rev. Dr. Jakes was responsible for bringing healing, reconciliation and restoration to West Point Baptist Church. In addition, Dr. Jakes has led the church in Operation Divine Restoration: Redesigning, Remodeling, and Restoring a 20th Century Building Using 21st Century Designs, constructing neighborhood town homes, creating new ministries for the community, casting vision for the 21st century, empowering the laity to actively engage in social justice, and a host of other successes. In 2010, Dr. Jakes began referring to West Point as, The faith family of West Point Missionary Baptist Church. This was not a constitutional name change, but a description as to who we are as a local church—a family of faith.

The accomplishments of The faith family of West Point Missionary Baptist Church could not have been done without the Holy Spirit, coupled with committed, practicing Christians with a mind to work for the Kingdom.

The history of The faith family of West Point Missionary Baptist Church has a span of over 102 years. Her history is too extensive for all pertinent information to be printed. However, it does not yet appear what she shall be. As God continues to show favor and faithfulness to The faith family of West Point Missionary Baptist Church, she will continue Living to Serve God by Serving Humanity (Galatians 5:13).
The intent of the Church’s Organizational Structure is to help members understand and relate to how the local church body functions. Following is a simplistic overview that depicts our democratic process.

The Senior Pastor/Teacher, like the President of the United States, serves in the Executive capacity. He is the Chief Under-shepherd who is responsible for the spiritual and overall well-being of the church. Another function is that he moderates all church meetings.

The Assistant to the Pastor, who is selected by the Senior Pastor, is like the Vice-President and serves as the overseer of the ministerial staff, while providing congregational care. This person is the ministerial mediator—representing the Office of the Senior Pastor.

The Deacons, like the Senators, are responsible for assisting the Senior Pastor/Teacher in setting guidelines and procedures that are necessary for spiritual growth and productivity.

The Ministry Lead Servants (presidents), like the House of Representatives, also assist the Senior Pastor/Teacher by overseeing, implementing and making recommendations that are aimed at strengthening the ministry of the church.

The members, or the citizens, make up the body. Like all the above, their responsibility is to respond to the leadership, policies and procedures of the church in such a way that God will always be glorified.

Meetings are held monthly for each group, except for the entire body. Meetings for the local church body are held quarterly. The church planning meeting is held in December. The ceremonial Installation of Church Officers and Lead Servants is held in January.
Pastoral Services and Care

Counseling
Counseling is available to members who feel the need for this service. If the need is greater than the counselor can meet, an outside professional will be recommended for extended counseling. Counseling is available based upon the member’s need. All counseling sessions are held on the campus of West Point Missionary Baptist Church, unless otherwise approved by the Senior Pastor.

Persons requesting counseling will need to call the church and leave a message.

Infant Dedication (Baby Blessing)
Infant Dedication is a ceremony in which the parents present themselves and the child before God—asking God to guide them in the rearing of their child. This is not the same as a Christening. West Point Missionary Baptist Church does not christen babies.

Individuals with active membership status may have their infant dedicated at West Point Missionary Baptist Church. Unwed parents who wish to have their infant dedicated must meet with an appointee from the pastoral team before the dedication is approved. This appointee will be appointed by the Senior Pastor. No exceptions. Therefore, a counseling session with the appointee will be necessary.

- Infant Dedications are held quarterly on the second (2nd) Sunday at 8:45 a.m.
- Child must be three (3) months or younger.

- Parents will need to call the office to place their child on the schedule. Call 773-538-7590 ext 221, Monday through Thursday, 10 a.m.—4 p.m., or leave a voicemail message at any time.
- Participants in the ceremony include: Parents and one set of Godparents.

Wedding and Marriages
Christian marriages are to be done per God’s Word. Couples who wish to have their wedding/marriage ceremony here must receive pre-marital counseling prior to the ceremony. The Senior Pastor reserves the right to refuse to perform ceremonies, as well as use of the worship center.

A Wedding consists of a full ceremony that includes a printed Order of Service and bridal party.

A Marriage is a simple ceremony that does not include a bridal party, etc.

Individuals with Active Membership status may request to have their wedding or marriage in the church. However, there are costs associated with the wedding, and will be discussed as arrangements are solidified.

At least one individual must be an active member of West Point Missionary Baptist Church; if so, proceed to the next step. If not, the church has a contract whereby the individuals will be presented.

Call the church for an initial interview. During the interview, the couple will:
- Agree on a schedule for premarital counseling
Pastoral Services and Care

- Set a date and time for the ceremony
- Arrange to meet with the church’s coordinator and a representative from the Music Ministry

The couple may request any ordained minister from the Pastoral team to conduct the ceremony. If the Senior Pastor is requested, and it aligns with his schedule, he will perform the ceremony. If not, the Senior Pastor will appoint an ordained minister to perform the ceremony.

In the Event of Sickness
James 5:14-15 gives us specific directions on the event of sickness:

Is any sick among you? Let him call for the elders (pastors) of the church; and let them pray over him anointing [them] with oil in the name of the Lord: and the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if [they] have committed sins they shall be forgiven [them].

If you become sick, you or someone in your family should call the church—773-538-7590 x221. If you are scheduled for surgery and wish to have a minister there to pray with you, NOTIFY THE CHURCH OFFICE prior to surgery.

In the Event of Death
It is our desire to share with you during this difficult time and to make it more bearable.

Services Provided to Members in Good Standing
If the deceased is a member of West Point Baptist Church, please call the church—773-538-7590 x221, and we will:

- Assist with the Order of Service and Obituary
- Host a continental breakfast during the visitation (all prepast and repast are the responsibility of the family—members and non-members).

In addition, there is no fee for the use of the worship center. However, there is a fee for the fellowship hall and kitchen, which requires a $150 deposit. The deposit will be returned if the persons responsible restores the fellowship hall and kitchen to its original cleanliness (a checklist will be provided). There is a fee for the turnkey, and it must be paid before the memorial service. Lastly, there is no fee for a musician; it will be incurred by the church (active members only). If soloist attaches a fee, the family will be notified.

Services Provided to a Non-member
If the deceased is not a member of West Point Missionary Baptist Church, we recommend the service be held at his/her church or a funeral home. Upon request, The Church may assist in providing a minister, a musician and/or soloist. The fee for the Senior Pastor is $350.00. This includes officiating, eulogizing, and the committal. The musician’s fee is $150.00, and the soloist’s fee is $100.00. All payments should be made with cash, prior to the memorial service.

Tithes and Offering System

We are a tithing church because the Word teaches tithing. Our experience gives witness to tithing. Our obedience to God requires tithing. Our response is to bring our tithes and offerings to the Lord as he has prospered us, for the "tenth shall be holy unto the Lord." Below is a sample chart on how to calculate your tithes.

Frequently Asked Questions

1. How long should I wait before joining a ministry, and how do I join?

First, you must complete New Disciples Orientation. However, you are at liberty to let your interest be known to the ministry leader. After completing class, you may join a ministry. Certain ministries have orientations and other requirements. If you are interested in organizing a ministry at WPMBC, write down your vision and present it to Pastor Yashika Tippett.

2. How long do I have to be a member before serving as Lead Servant of a ministry?

One year

3. What should I do if I need financial assistance?

Write a letter of request stating your needs. You must supply documentation to support your claim. Leave your sealed request in the church office and you should receive a response within one week.

4. If I'm in the neighborhood, can I stop by and see Dr. Jakes?

Dr. Jakes enjoys speaking with members and the public. However, his schedule does not permit impromptu visits. If you would like to meet with him, you should schedule an appointment via the church office staff. You will be required to provide the purpose of the meeting. Depending on the nature of business, you may be directed to meet with someone else on staff. The maximum time for each appointment is 30 minutes. Dr. Jakes does not have an open-door policy.

5. Is it important for me to attend New Disciples Orientation? If so, why?

Yes, emphatically! In the weeks of sharing, the instructor expounds on different topics as you can begin to take ownership of your spiritual journey. In addition, many historical untruths are revealed, and Biblical truths highlighted.

6. What happens after I complete New Disciples classes?

Your church family celebrates you as the newest member of our family of faith. A commencement is held in your honor during the 10 a.m. Sunday Morning Glory Worship Service.

7. What numbers do I call if I have an emergency?

First, call the church. If after business hours, call the Deacon that serves your birth month. His or her number will be given at New Disciples Orientation.

8. Is there a fee for renting the church for weddings, funerals, etc.?

As a member in good standing, i.e., time and treasure, there are privileges allotted to you within this local church. Members in good standing pay a different rental fee than non-members, but all members must observe and pay the rental fees associated with every event, as it relates to the church and fellowship hall.
There are standard fees associated with the employees of the church that must be hired for your event, i.e., Turn-key, Custodian, Sound Engineer, Musician, Soloist, and Security. Dr. L. Bernard Jakes fee to officiate a wedding is $350.00, which includes the rehearsal. Pre-marital counseling is $200.00 for six one-hour sessions. A fee is not attached to funerals of active members in good standing, but a freewill offering is appreciated. If Dr. Jakes is requested to officiate a funeral for a non-member, normal fees for the pastor and use of the church facilities apply. Those fees will be presented upon approval of the Church Utilization Agreement Form and Church Utilization Contract.

If the member requesting to use the church for weddings, funerals, etc., desires to use outside assistance, the Senior Pastor must approve it. No plans should be made or finalized until final approval is given by the Trustees and the Dr. L. Bernard Jakes.

9. Since I am a member in good standing, can I use the church, rent free, for a family member?
Remember, your membership has privileges for you. As a tithe paying member, your monies go toward financially supporting the daily operations of this local church so the lights, gas, etc., can be paid. If the church allowed every family member of a member to use the church whenever there was a need, the members who give financially would cover those expenses, which is unfair. Therefore, if the space is needed for a family member, i.e., weddings, funerals, anniversaries, etc., the normal contractual fees apply.

10. I want to teach a Christian Education Class. What do I need to do?
To teach at WPMBC, you must complete the Leaders/Teacher Certification curriculum. Offered twice a year, all participants must be recommended by a Ministry Leader or Staff Pastor. OUR MISSION

The mission and purpose of the faith family of West Point Baptist Church is to fulfill the Great Commission of Jesus Christ, Go ye therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit (St. Matthew 28:19). We meet this challenge through our worship, ministry and outreach.

We strive to be a WORSHIPPING CHURCH, seeking God in spirit and in truth.

We strive to be a LEARNING CHURCH, committed to Biblical principles and spiritual dynamics.

We strive to be a SOUL-WINNING CHURCH, sharing our testimony of faith with all people.

We work to be a MODEL CHURCH, in the spirit of the church at Philadelphia always committed to the highest standards of excellence through prayer, tithing and Christian concern.

We work to be a SOCIALLY CONSCIOUS, JUSTICE SEEKING, AND LIBERATION CHURCH, aligning ourselves with the spirit of Amos, the commitment of Micah, and the proclamation of Jesus the Christ in St. Luke 4.18.

We work to be a TRANSFORMATIVE, LIFE-CHANGING CHURCH, meeting the needs of our brothers and sisters outside and inside the local church through life-changing ministries.

We work to be a CHURCH WITHOUT WALLS, extending God’s grace to the world, outside of the local church, through various ministries of helps.

WHAT WE BELIEVE

There is one God, revealed to us as Father, Son (Jesus) and Holy Spirit.

The Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the complete and sufficient Word of God.

The ordinance of Baptism signifies our fellowship with the death and resurrection of Jesus the Christ.

The Lord’s Supper commemorates Jesus’ death, confirms our faith, and renews our communion with Jesus and others believers.
